VINELAND, N. J., HOLDS ITS ANNUAL FAIR AND CARNIVAL
The automobile parade was a big feature yesterday. Landis avenue, Vineland's business thoroughfare, is a foot wider than Broad street, Philadelphia.

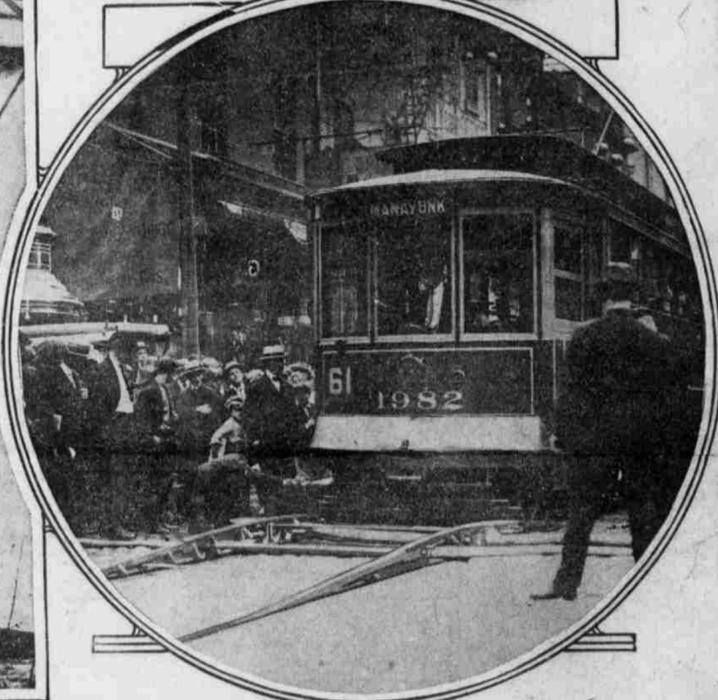

ONE OF THE STRIKING AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITS
J. A. Watts, of South Vineland, has on view these stalks of corn, 16 feet 10 inches high and carrying six ears each.

OF COURSE, THE SUFFRAGISTS HAVE A BOOTH AT VINELAND

BRIDES FOR DOUBLE WAR WEDDING
These sisters, Misses Rosita and Olympia Rey, are soon to wed brothers who are officers in the Italian army. The former will marry Alessandro Caramelli, an officer on the submarine Sculpia, and the latter will become the bride of Lieutenant Angelo Caramelli, in this city.

TO AVOID STREET CAR BLOCKS WHEN A FIRE IS IN PROGRESS
The Fire Bureau is testing this device, which permits fire hose to run beneath the car tracks instead of across them. It is believed the invention will do away with the traffic snarls which have been caused by so many big blazes in the past.

CZAR'S CRACK REGIMENT AWAITING THE EVER-ADVANCING GERMANS
These are men of the famous Ponogorjelski Regiment, which, since the war began a year ago, has taken part in 31 battles. They have just dug themselves in to cover the retreat of their comrades, who are fleeing to escape being caught in the German vice.

FRANCE HONORS A BELGIAN HERO
